PRESS RELEASE FROM THE STATE ELECTORAL OFFICER, MR. DOUGLAS.

SEMAPHORE BY-ELECTION.

30.5.73

The State Electoral Officer, Mr. Douglas, urged Semaphore electors to make sure they voted in Saturday's by-election.

He said anybody who would be away from the Semaphore electorate or unable to get to a polling booth would have to lodge a postal vote in the next three days.

Absentee votes will not be available for Saturday's by-election, because polling booths will only be open in the Semaphore district itself.

Mr. Douglas said he was concerned that people realise voting is compulsory in a by-election as well as in a general election.

"So far we've only received a third of the number of postal votes we expect at this state, and I urge people who will need a postal vote to apply as soon as possible", he said.

The by-election is being held following the death of the late Speaker of the House of Assembly, Mr. Reg Hurst.
